Bonava to take part in Expo Real Trade Fair in Munich

On 4-6 October, Bonava will take part in the annual Expo Real International Trade Fair for Property and Investment in Munich, Germany. The goal is to meet with investors to brand Bonava as the leading housing developer.

Expo Real is a meeting place for Europe's foremost players in the industry. Investors, residential developers, politicians and other industry stakeholders will meet for two days to discuss construction, housing and properties.

Bonava's stand at the trade fair will serve as a meeting place for discussions on residential construction and development as well as a platform for displaying some of the many homes and vibrant neighbourhoods created by Bonava.

Bonava strives to offer affordable homes in dynamic and functional areas, where people feel a sense of belonging and happiness. To succeed in this endeavour, Bonava aims to increase the level of industrialisation and standardisation in its production and boost its efficiency in other areas.

Practical information:

Time: 4-6 October 2017

Venue: Hall A2, Stand 424, Messe München, Germany

Germany is Bonava's second largest market after Sweden and accounted for just over a quarter of the company's total sales in 2016. Bonava is the most active residential developer in Germany and operates in nine of Germany's 10 largest cities. Bonava completed a total of approximately 1,300 homes in Germany during 2016.
