24 April 2019

New Heads of PR and IR at Bonava

The residential developer Bonava strengthens communication with journalists and investors by recruiting two new experienced managers.

Louise Tjeder is appointed new Head of IR at Bonava and took up her position in midst April. Louise has previously worked at Ambea where she was head of Strategy and Investor Relations. She has also experience as Head of IR at Tele2, and from SCA where she held the position as Director Group Financial Control.

Fredrik Hammarbäck is the new Head of Press and Public Affairs, he will assume his position on May 2. Fredrik has previously worked at the Swedish Red Cross where he was head of Press. Fredrik has also held positions within PR for the Swedish Government Offices and for the Swedish Television.

- Bonava is a challenger in a conservative industry, focusing on homes for the many. Our strategy differs from other players and this is important for us to communicate with journalists and investors. Therefore, Head of IR and Head of PR are two key positions and we are pleased to welcome Louise Tjeder and Fredrik Hammarbäck to Bonava, says Ann-Sofi Danielsson, CFO at Bonava.
