Jon Johnsson to step down as CFO of Bonava in 2027

Bonava AB today announces that Jon Johnsson has chosen to end his role as Chief Financial Officer and Deputy CEO. He will leave the company no earlier than 15 August 2027.

Jon Johnsson has served as CFO of Bonava since January 2025.

"I would like to thank Jon for his important contributions to Bonava. Over the past two years, he has played a key role in our efforts to achieve growth and sustainable profitability through greater efficiency and a more resilient business, including the refinancing completed this year. During 2027, we will continue working together to strengthen Bonava's performance and position," says Peter Wallin, President and CEO of Bonava.

Bonava will immediately begin the recruitment process for a new CFO. Jon Johnsson will ensure a smooth handover and support the recruitment and onboarding of his successor.

"At Bonava, we have taken important steps to lay the foundations for increased profitability, volume and capital efficiency. These measures have strengthened our financial and operational flexibility, enabling us to continue developing as a residential developer of sustainable homes and neighbourhoods across our geographical markets. This focus will continue in 2027. I am pleased to have had the opportunity to help lead this journey alongside outstanding and highly skilled colleagues," says Jon Johnsson.

Jon Johnsson will take up an equivalent role outside the Bonava Group. He will remain CFO and a member of the Executive Management Group until mid-August 2027.
